BTEC Advanced Award for Audiology Technicians in Educational Settings

Training Opportunity

The Ewing Foundation and Mary Hare Training Services are working in partnership to provide a training opportunity for professionals wishing to specialise in providing technical support to hearing impaired learners.

Are you a Teaching Assistant working with deaf learners?

Do you provide technical support in a school, college or Local Authority?

Are you interested in learning more about the educational impact of hearing loss and how technology can help deaf learners communicate, participate and succeed?

To gain accreditation at BTEC Advanced Level, students are required to successfully complete four units, each comprising supported self-study, workshops and assessed tasks. Students are also required to undertake a work placement of 5 days in one or more settings outside their normal workplace.

Course Dates - March 2012 - April 2013

Induction Day:	28.03.12
Unit 1/Workshop 1:	09.05.12 Listening and Learning
Unit 2/Workshop 2:	04.07.12 Personal Amplification Systems
Unit 2/Workshop 3:	03.10.12 Personal Amplification Systems
Unit 3/Workshop 4:	07.11.12 Fault-Finding & Problem Solving
Unit 3/Workshop 5:	30.01.13 Fault Finding & Problem Solving
Unit 4/Workshop 6:	27.02.13 Managing, Administration & Sharing Knowledge

Workshops to be held at Mary Hare School, Arlington Manor, Snelsmore Common, Newbury, Berkshire, RG14 3BQ.

Cost: £650 (including BTEC Registration)

General Information

How to Book

- Course prices include lunch and refreshments at all workshops.
- Please complete a booking form (also available via our website or from Mary Hare Training Services) and submit it by fax or post, with payment or invoicing instructions.
- Cheques should be made payable to 'Mary Hare School'. Please do get in touch if you need to change any details of your booking.
- Places are allocated on a first- come first-served basis and we will confirm your place as soon as possible.

Cancellation and changes

- Regardless of whether payment has been received, you will be liable for the full course fee unless we receive written notice of cancellation 14 days before the start date, in which case there will only be a £10 administration fee.
- Following written notice of cancellation, you will be offered the chance to transfer your booking to another course or nominate a colleague to take your place, subject to space being available.
- No refunds will be made for bookings cancelled within 14 days or for non-attendance at any of the workshops.
